NOTICES OF THE DAY.

Postoffice currency will be exchanged at this office for larger United States notes, etc.

EDUCATIONAL PUBLICATION.—Having been very generally solicited, Prof. W. N. Hallman, of the Louisville High School, has determined to commence the publication on the 15th April next, of a monthly journal to be entitled "The School and Family Visitor," the objects and policy of which periodical are indicated by its title. The value of such a publication, conducted upon the plan contemplated by Prof. Hallman, will be incalculable, as it will materially aid the teacher as well as the parent in the cultivation of the youthful mind. The different departments of the paper will be easily conducted, of which the editorial association of Prof. Hallman is a sufficient guarantee; and as special attention will be given to home instruction the publication will become one of peculiar interest to heads of families as well as children. We trust the enterprise will be liberally encouraged. Those who feel interested may address Prof. W. N. Hallman, box 419, Louisville post-office.

We do not suppose there are more than two or three members of the Legislature who were not elected upon the KENTUCKY PLATFORM. And Mr. Hamilton is certainly not one of them. The fact is it is unnecessary to reaffirm our principles is a hollow one. The position of the dominant party to-day is flagrantly hostile to our principles and to our hopes; it has ever been. Furthermore, the leaders of the dominant party boldly claim that Kentucky is prepared to espouse it in this culminating point of its revolutionary career. Under these circumstances, we do not reaffirm our principles to renounce them, and to throw the whole moral and political weight of the Commonwealth into the revolutionary scale. We really cannot believe that there is a considerable minority in the Legislature prepared thus to violate their pledges and to betray the State. The thought appears to us most strenuous for belief.

ITEMS.—First Lieutenant Ben. F. Throobrough, company K, 20th, Kentucky volunteer infantry, died at the Small-pox Hospital in this city yesterday morning. He was a gallant officer, and his death will be deplored by a wide circle of friends and relatives.

Ben. Sparks was arrested yesterday, charged with felonies.

Gen. Manson arrived in the city from Knobsville last evening. He reports all quiet at that point, and has the most implicit confidence in our ability to hold the place.

Dr. G. S. Rowland, formerly rebel Provost Marshal of Hopkinsville, was recently captured at Charlotte, Dixon county, Tenn., and brought to this city on Tuesday. He is confined in the Military Prison, to await trial by the Court-Martial now in session in this city.

Tompkins is the name of the rebel Lieutenant arrested in this city a few days ago. He belongs to one of the rebel Tennessee regiments.

We learn that the party sent out from Frankfort by the Inspector-General, to Owen county, after Mrs. Webster and his gang of outlaws, returned on Sunday, having arrested some ten or fifteen prisoners, two of whom were bushwhackers, and the others are considered for harboring the gang, and giving them shelter and comfort in various ways.

Fourteen guerrillas were brought to Lexington from Morgan county, recently, who attempted to hang a citizen because he was a Union man. His friends were apprised of the affair, and arrived in time to save his life by putting him down. The miscreants were brought to this city a few days since, and are now in the Military Prison.

A difficulty occurred at Portland yesterday between two steamboats, in which scowlers were thrown by the parties, endangering the lives of a number of people in the vicinity of the affray. One of the men was struck in the mouth and badly wounded.

Russell P. Lander, late rebel postmaster at Hopkinsville, whose arrest was noticed yesterday, has been paroled to the limits of our city and put under bond of $5,000.

Colonel A. E. Smith, of the 83d Illinois, in command at Clarksville, Tenn., requires all deserters permitted to ship goods beyond the lines to take the oath prescribed by Gov. Johnson for the reorganization of civil government in Tennessee.

Two deserters from a Michigan regiment were arrested near Boston, Jefferson county, by a surgeon, and brought to this city. They proved to be two notorious thieves, who have recently stolen horses and mules in this county.

Gen. R. A. Sprague has been authorized to organize a company of mounted men for the protection of the Green river country. He made his headquarters at Campbellsville, Ky. His reputation as a gallant officer, already made in that portion of the country, cannot but insure his speedy success.

Capt. Hewitt's 3d Kentucky battery is in full. Anxious volunteers must not forget that his office is on the southeast corner of Fifth and Main streets. Hurry up.

The Old Alleghenians, vocalists and Swissbells, will give concerts at Masonic Temple, Friday and Saturday (next week), Feb'y 18th and 19th. Mr. D. G. Waldron, formerly connected with the press of California, is there.

Charles Reuter requests us to state that he will set a luxuriant lunch, with all the delicacies of this season, this morning at 10 o'clock. The flag ship Black Hawk left New Albany on Tuesday, with Rear Admiral Porter on board, for below.

Forty rebel prisoners arrived on Tuesday, and were yesterday forwarded to the camp north.

General Schofield assumed command of the department of the Ohio on Saturday last, vice ester relieved.

THE THIRTY-SEVENTH KENTUCKY.—This gallant regiment, under the famous Col. Charles Hanson, has been supplied with Enfield rifles, and will be mounted as cavalry in a few days. The regiment numbers $10 men. Col. Hanson has been assigned to the command of Southwestern Kentucky, the most important command in the State. Gen. Hobson having taken command of Gen. Ammen, as commander of his department, who is now engaged as President of the Court-Martial at Cincinnati. Col. Hanson is a brave officer, and a gentleman distinguished ability, and we are highly pleased to learn that he has received the arms and equipments of which his regiment has stood in need for some time past. He will make his headquarters at Glasgow, a point which the rebels invariably attack on coming to our State. We are pleased to learn that military authorities have at last been convinced of the necessity of employing cavalry instead of infantry to meet the rebel bands testing our State. We may expect to hear good account from the 37th under its famous commander.
